That which we are, we are, and if we are to be any better, now is the time to learn.

Someone once said that learning is the primary purpose of going to school. To this end, Borgess does fulfill this purpose. But education is more than attending classes. Students not only learn in classes; they learn through varied experiences, whether they be from their own or the experiences of others. The Borgess faculty brings to this school a myriad of backgrounds and personalities. The Borgess student body does likewise. This melting pot can produce conflicts, friendships, a basis for understanding, and devotion. All of this is learning.

To say that teachers only teach and students only learn is illogical. Learning implies a give and take in experiences and knowledge. The Borgess teachers learn from their students as well as teach them.

This section, Academics, presents the Borgess faculty. Classes are designed to appeal to both the college bound student and the student who seeks a general education. Borgess' flexibility allows a student to adapt his course of work to his particular situation. This flexibility is evident in the variety of courses offered in such departments as History, English, Religion and Science. The Religion and English departments for examples, have implemented team teaching in the freshmen department, following the lead of the History and Science departments. The Religion and English departments each offered twenty-two different electives this past year. The History and Science departments have offered five and three electives respectively.

Although history concerns itself with the heritage of man, art and language also transcend the barriers of time. Student tours to Quebec and Mexico were of primary importance to language students because they were able to examine the customs and life styles of our neighbors. The art student learns to appreciate and interpret the environment around him. A European tour, scheduled for this summer, allowed students to gain an insight into the aesthetic contributions of countries overseas.

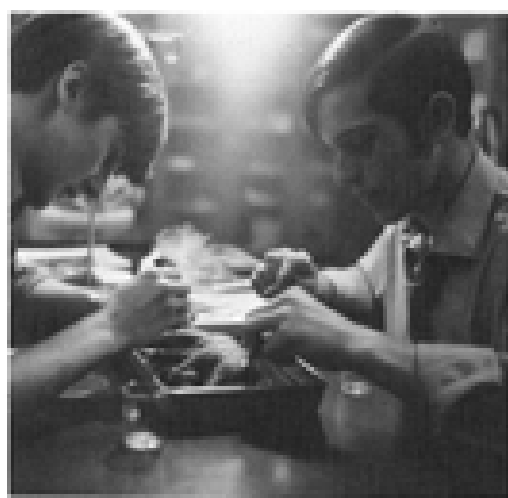

The Math and Business departments expanded by introducing students to new machinery. The Math department elective, Computer Science, utilized the computer from the Applied Computer Time Share Company in Southfield, Michigan. A new addition in staff, Mr. Michael Kowal, taught the students how to program in the different computer languages. The Business department's new machinery included three Selectric typewriters, designed to help students learn dictation procedures. In addition, Business Law and Personal Financial Management were among the new courses offered this past year.

Child development was taught this year by Mrs. Barbara Smith who replaced Miss Patricia Ringvetski in Home Economics.

The Guidance Department includes Miss Delores Kaczmarczyk, Mr. Ted Cafferty and Sr. Mary Ruth, a newcomer. Among the many functions of the Guidance Department, are four types of counseling: collegiate, occupational, personal and academics; scheduling, and both high school and college registration. Finally, the Guidance Dept. acts as a liaison for students in their relationships with the school, the teachers, and their parents. Secretary of the Guidance Department is Mrs. Eleanor Gendjar, who takes care of all the clerical work.

Mrs. Alice Allen and her able staff, Mrs. Lillian Jaroh and Miss Laura Spampinato were responsible for keeping the "operation" running smoothly.

And when the operation is running smoothly, then Borgess is at its best.

Tennyson

Autumn was a time for beginning here at Borgess which for the first time in Borgess history would not be highlighted by the class of '70. Finally, after four years, the role of leader was handed down to an anxious senior class of 1971.

The most urgent matter that Borgess had to face was Proposal C. Should public funds be used to support non-public schools? This was the issue, and Borgess took the stand that yes, these funds should be used to support non-public schools.

But, in order to achieve our goal, the defeat of Proposal C, we had to wage battle and to do this we needed an army. So Borgess students took the initiative, and organized MSAC, calling upon the other parochial schools in the archdiocese to join the battle.

Countless thousands of bumper stickers, buttons, and signs calling upon citizens to "Vote No on C" became evident all over town in a matter of a few weeks.

And even though in the end we lost the election, Borgess was not defeated.

While the battle against C was going on, Borgess was occupied on the fronts as well. Mr. Fred Mushinski, replacing Mr. Pat Uetz as head football coach, and his assistants, Mr. Jim Brisky, Mr. Dennis Brisky, and Mr. Mike McCloskey worked to form a better varsity football team. Although their record showed 2-6-0, the Spartans made for tough competition.

Tri-captains Danny Burke, Kevin Downey, and John Steffy led their team in a true spirit of sportsmanship, dedication and determination.

Three players won honors this past year in football. Junior Paul Benion received an All-State Honorable Mention, and Kevin Downey, a senior, was chosen as an All-League candidate. John Steffy, also a senior, in addition to All-League Selection, received the Most Valuable Player award for the varsity squad.

The Borgess Junior Varsity team enjoyed its second undefeated season this year as they retained an overall record of 10-2-0. The A-West Champs' defense boasted of allowing only six points all season. Mr. Stephen Strauch and Mr. John Kolf were the coaches of the Junior Varsity and their captains were Paul Doemer, Greg Drypen and Dan McManamon.

The Freshman football team, coached by Mr. Pat Mulcahey and Mr. Mike Meloche, showed promise with their 1-3-1 record.

Bishop Borgess was revered as the undefeated champions of the cross country course. No other school in the Catholic League could approach the Spartans' overall record of 14 consecutive victories over three seasons. The winners of the Catholic League A-West Championship, Detroit Catholic Varsity Championship, and the State Regional Championship, were runners from all grade levels who put forth the drive that made the Borgess Cross Country Team victorious.

Head coach, Mr. Brian Schwall, and his assistant, Mr. Tom Kennedy, worked together in coaching both Varsity and Junior Varsity squads. Taking All-City honors were co-captains Rick Jacobs and Al Rewekant, in addition to Jim Gavin and Bob McCarthy.

Borgess runners also accumulated a great number of trophies for individual achievement in various invitational meets.

Our Cross Country runners displayed an unsurpassed ability to respond under pressure and extend their winning streak into 1970, even if it meant individual sacrifices for the success of the team.

The Junior Varsity's record this year was a commitment to the future. The J.V. went undefeated for the 1970 season in three invitational meets, the Lipke Invitational, the Southgate Invitational, and the Catholic League Championship. But the really fantastic thing about the Junior Varsity was that they not only won the Catholic League Championship but scored a shutout doing it. During the season, various members of the J.V. squad were called upon to run in varsity competition. Keeping the J.V. record in mind, it is certain that Borgess will have a strong Cross Country team for a long time to come.

On October 30, 1970, Bishop Borgess initiated another tradition, Homecoming. Reigning in Borgess' first Homecoming were Queen Debbie Young and her court made up of seniors Kathy Papi and Laura Gawronski, junior Carol Rokicki and sophomore Mary Abramczyk.

Students and alumni alike had looked forward to this occasion for a long time.

At nine o'clock, the queen and her court made their entrance up the center aisle amid many smiling faces and flashing cameras. After Queen Debbie Young welcomed the alumni back at Borgess, everyone joined in dancing to the music provided by Insanity's Horse.

On Sunday, November 1, 1970, Borgess faced Sacred Heart of Dearborn at Thurston field for our first homecoming game.

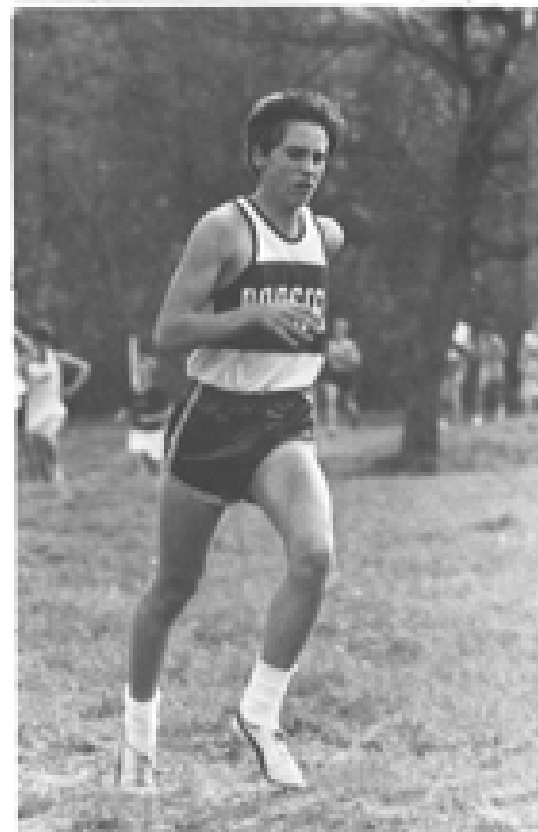

The game, even though it ended in defeat for Borgess, was very close, 14-7.

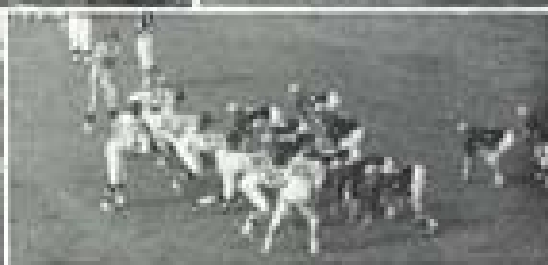

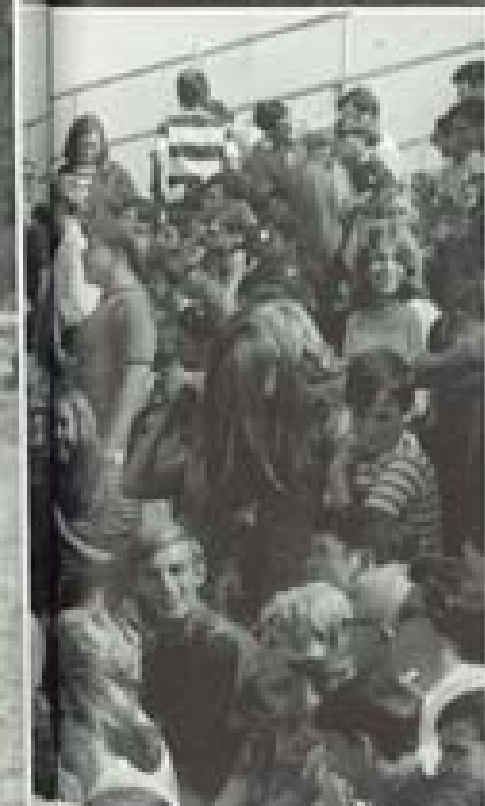

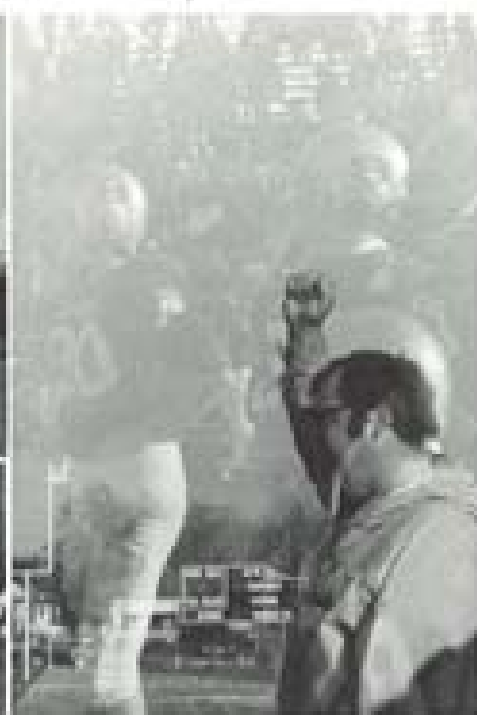

The theme at the half-time ceremonies was the "Defeat of Proposal C and the Shamrocks." Many homerooms decorated cars in this spirit and each class entered a float. For the second year in succession, the class of '71 won the float competition with a submarine torpedoing "C" and the Shamrocks.

In mid November, the theatrical abilities of Borgess' students were once again displayed in the hilarious comedy, "Charley's Aunt." Junior Craig Scott played the dazzling impersonation of Charley's Aunt from Brazil. The farce unraveled when the real aunt, played by Cynthia Grywalski, discovers her imposter smoking a cigar. Behind the scenes, stage and prop crews helped to make the production a success.

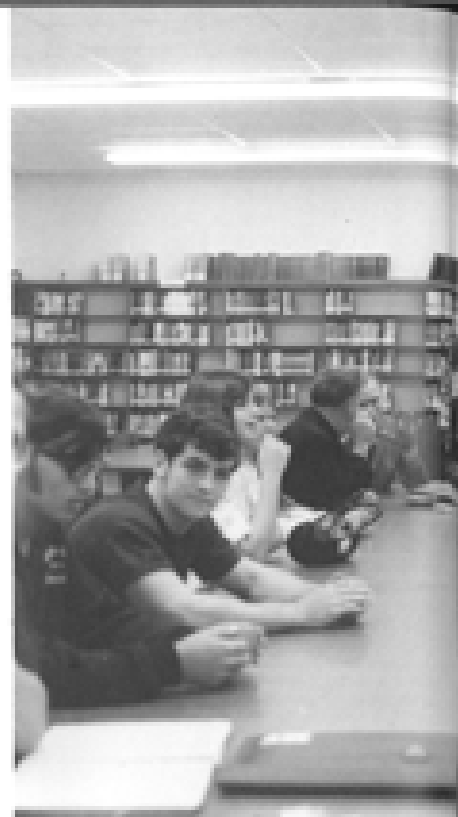

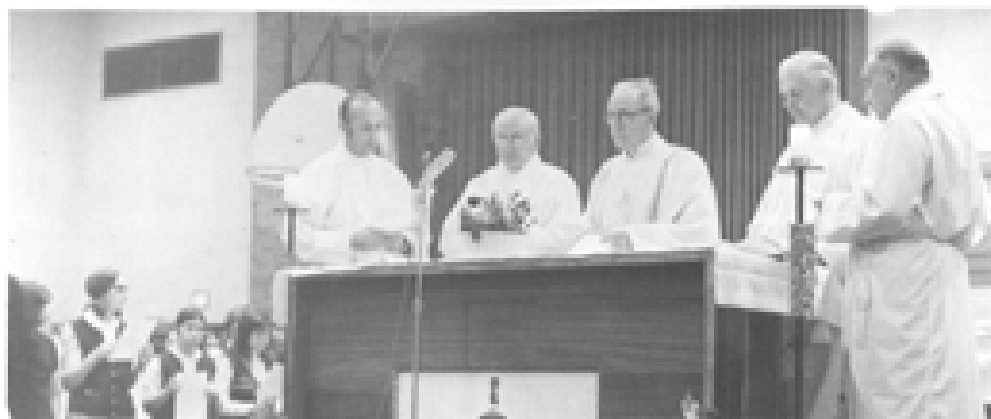

The Pep Club at Borgess worked hard to promote a spirit of sportsmanship in the student body. Led by President Pat Laske and moderator Sr. Mary Euphemia C.S.S.F., the club encouraged attendances at all sports events. In order to raise the money to have an athletic banquet in the spring, the Pep Club sponsored the sale of "We're No. 1" buttons.

For the first time at Borgess, cheerleaders led the fans in cheering our Spartan athletes. Under the guidance of Miss Joanne Start and Miss Janet Cross, 80 willing girls vied for positions as Spartan cheerleaders. With the assistance of the Michigan State and University of Detroit cheerleading squads eliminations were held and the final varsity team of eight girls and two boys were chosen along with a Junior Varsity six-girl squad. Varsity captains Kathy Papi and Kathy Hull and Junior Varsity captain Mary Abramczyk led the girls in hand practice, with the emphasis on precision. The Borgess cheerleaders and eager fans helped spread the spirit in the 1970-1971 season.

to be any better, now is the time to unite.

Bishop Borgess plunged into winter sports with all the enthusiasm of a downhill racer hitting his first freshly packed slope of the season. And in many fields we remained the undisputed champs.

Our Freshman and Varsity basketball teams were the masters of the court, gliding to long-sought victories over some of the best teams in the league. The Freshmen earned the First Division A-West Championship, with a combination of eighteen hustling young men, led by scorers Dan Kelly and Greg Drypen, rebounders Phil Parker and Mike Milosch, and offensive attacker Tim Lucas. The Freshmen were coached by Mr. Mike McCloskey.

Spartan Varsity cagers capped their season with an A-West Co-championship, rivaling the Freshmen in superiority. Co-champion Aquinas tumbled twice before the Borgess onslaught, much to the delight of Coach Tom Denewith. Bob Davis, Jeff Crowley and Mark Sopko delivered praiseworthy performances on court, making the first and second league teams respectively.

Our Junior Varsity, coached by Mr. Pat Mulcahy, settled for a slightly less than perfect achievement record with ten wins and four losses. Their team showing only seemed to reaffirm the fact that this was the year of the basketball for Borgess.

Miss Kathy Collins led the Girls' Varsity and Junior Varsity teams to their best seasons yet. J.V. captains, Connie McDavitt and Rose Shaheen, saw their team off to a promising start with Runner-up awards in the pre-season Rosary Invitational Tournament. Jane Ilitch was the leading scorer with forty-five points. The hard work and diligent practice of the Varsity yielded a strong competition for their opponents. Co-captains were Pam Gretchen and Nancy Itzyre, who was also the leading Varsity scorer. Future seasons should find the girl basketballers positioning themselves far ahead of any rivals.

The tanksuit brigade placed sixth in the Catholic Girls' Swim League this year. Star swimmers Barb Lewicki, Kathy Reschke, Cindy Mobley, Kathy Cooley, and Karen Brackett plowed through the waves under the guidance of coaches, Mr. Bill Mobley, Miss Mary Ann Joganic and diving instructor Gil Hardin. Individual honors characterized this team's proficiency. They finished the season with a 1-3 record, a far from ample indication of their talent.

The coming of winter was accompanied by the introduction of a new sport to the athletic department. Wrestling took its place among the Spartans' favorite pastimes, coaching courtesy of Mr. Tom Kennedy. Co-captains were Sam Lamia, Mark McCarthy and Herb Schraw. It was an aggressive opening season, sporting two bronze medal-winners, Mark McCarthy and Sam Lamia. Even though the team, composed only of underclassmen, lost every match, they left their mark on the competition.

However, athletics was not the only Borgess activity that was rolling. Both Varsity and Novice debaters stacked up awards in the Detroit Catholic Forensic League competition. Each squad qualified for the Grand Tournament, which placed them among the four top teams on the victory roster. Stiff competition was exemplified by terse verbal battles touching on provocative issues like pollution. A plaque was awarded Bishop Borgess by the Michigan High School Forensic Association for excellence in debate. Ken Kraemer and Larry Ryyi pulled the two top speaker awards from among forty-eight contestants. All factors contributed to a second place standing in the league. Outstanding competitors in forensic competition were Tom Farrell (extemporaneous speaking), Jo Ann Hebert (serious interpretative reading), Jan Doerner (children's storytelling), and Barb Budde (original oratory). Included in this field is radio newscasting.

Borgess will venture into state competition in the early spring with a top three rank among Detroit Catholic Schools. Next year's national topic is "Should we re-vamp the jury system?" Future contests promise to be exciting exhibitions.

Bishop Borgess rang in the Yuletide season to the "Sound of Christmas." The concert featured the dance of the reindeer and a special surprise visit from Nick, the fat man in the red suit. Several new musical numbers, as well as the old favorites were performed under the direction of Mr. William Jones.

The season of red and green was a musical time, as the Varsity Band also presented a collection of numbers under the title "Winter Winds." The band took a number one rating, demonstrating the great improvement which came about under their new leader, Mr. Daniel King.

And if two concerts weren't enough, a dance was included in the festivities of the Christmas week. Above all the chiming of "Silver Bells" was heard the music of Ray Adams and His Orchestra. Many couples chose to attend a special mass held in the student commons prior to the dance.

The annual semi-formal Valentine Dance was sponsored this year by the Junior Class. The theme, "Love-is" was manifested by the decorations and musical atmosphere of the cafeteria.

The Spanish Club boasted of a fund-raising activity this year and enjoyed a trip to "El Nibble Nook," a restaurant featuring a Latin American atmosphere. Both food and conversation had a spicy air. Officers of the Spanish Club are: President: Margaret Spade, Vice-president: Mary Ellen Hiltz, Secretary: Sue Calleja, and Treasurer: Peggy Murray. Miss Novitsky advised the officers.

The French Club made plans for their spring trip to Quebec, which was financed by money made on a raffle. Prizes included an Instamatic camera and cassette recorder. The French Club officers are: President: Sue Murray, Vice-president: Fran Roginski, Secretary: Cecilia Farina, Treasurer: Judy Wiktor, and Sr. Rosaire, advisor.

Spurred on by last year's glorious achievements, the Math Club strove again to break down the boundaries of man's mathematical knowledge, to rediscover ancient concepts, and to make new numbers. Guest speakers expounded on such topics as topology, conic sections, spherical coordinate systems and logarithmic equations. Officers of the Math Club are: President: Candi Forte, Vice-president: Pat Blaney, Secretary: Sue Bradley, and Treasurer: Mary Wilczak. Advisors for this club are Sr. Rose Marie and Miss Nalecz.

The National Honor Society singled out exceptional students and presented them with certificates. The qualifications for acceptance include a 3.1 grade-point average, leadership qualities, participation in extracurricular activities, and a teacher recommendation. There was a total of thirty-eight Seniors re-elected to the National Honor Society and an additional thirty-nine accepted. Emily Shaheen and Dennis O'Brien were nominated for scholarships by other Borgess N.H.S. members. New Junior inductees whose membership is subject to renewal and approval in the fall of 1971, number sixty-two.

That which we are, we are, and if we are to be any better, now is the time to grow.

Spring is most often termed a time of new beginnings. Yet it can also be remembered as a time of endings, conclusions of years in high school. It can be considered a hinge between endings and beginnings, thus a bridge to the future.

The spring of the year 1971 brought to Borgess a national champ and national recognition. Karen Kosinski, a senior at Bishop Borgess, captured the highest honors ever bestowed on a Michigan student in Forensic competition. She earned First Place in Humorous Reading at the National Catholic High School Forensic Tournament held in New Orleans in the spring. This was the first time in Michigan's twenty-year history as a participant that an entrant has won. Karen, working under the guidance of Miss Joanne Start, competed with 800 state winners in six different categories. Her versatile performance marked Borgess' first entry into national competition. Karen gave two readings, one dramatic, "The Murder of Lidice" by Edna St. Vincent Millay, and one humorous "Charlie and the Chocolate Factory" by Ronald Dahl. As a reward for her endeavor, Miss Kosinski will receive a four-year college scholarship. It could be that Karen owes it all to blueberry bubble gum and a talent for chewing it.

Likewise, the Spring musical OKLAHOMA was a whopping success, and Mr. Jones proved a more than adequate successor to Sr. Lisa Marie. Mr. St. Charles once again directed the performers and the star-studded cast included Cindy Grywalski, Eileen Sherry, Linda Slusarczyk, Leonard Furman, Jim Meloche, Mike Diebolt, Dave Forest and Kay Roberts. In addition to the rousing performance, there was a dream-dance sequence between the villain and hero and heroine, as portrayed by Karl Gabrys, Steve Grudzien and Annette Ilg. Guests were able to view original student artwork displayed in the cafeteria at the intermissions of the play.

Borgess seamstresses kept in step with the "Pacesetters," a fashion show featuring their own work. Modeling was broken up into three different categories: morning, afternoon and evening. Viewers couldn't doubt the fact that the girls and the threads were fantastic.

Musically oriented students bounced into the spirit of spring on June 4th and 7th with a little affair entitled "Spring-Along." Dan King and his musicians set the tempo for the mini-concert that boasted such old and new favorites as "Windy," "I Feel Pretty," "Close to You," "Fiddler on the Roof," "Battle Hymn of the Republic," and a choice selection of Burt Bacharach, spiced with some classical pieces. Mr. William Jones and his choral group were assisted again this year by Mr. Jonathan Swift, singer extraordinaire.

Students at Borgess were no stay-at-homes this year. Various classes boasted trips away from home, designed to enlighten them to their chosen course of study. Aside from the usual movies, some history classes were treated to trips to Greenfield Village, and the Fisher Theatre, where they saw the hit Broadway musical 1776. Biology and history classes went to the Ford Rouge Plant, a study in progress and ecology. Besides all that traipsing around, Mr. Ted Cafferty and Miss Sharpe Finnerty sponsored Saturday jaunts to Hope College and Notre Dame College.

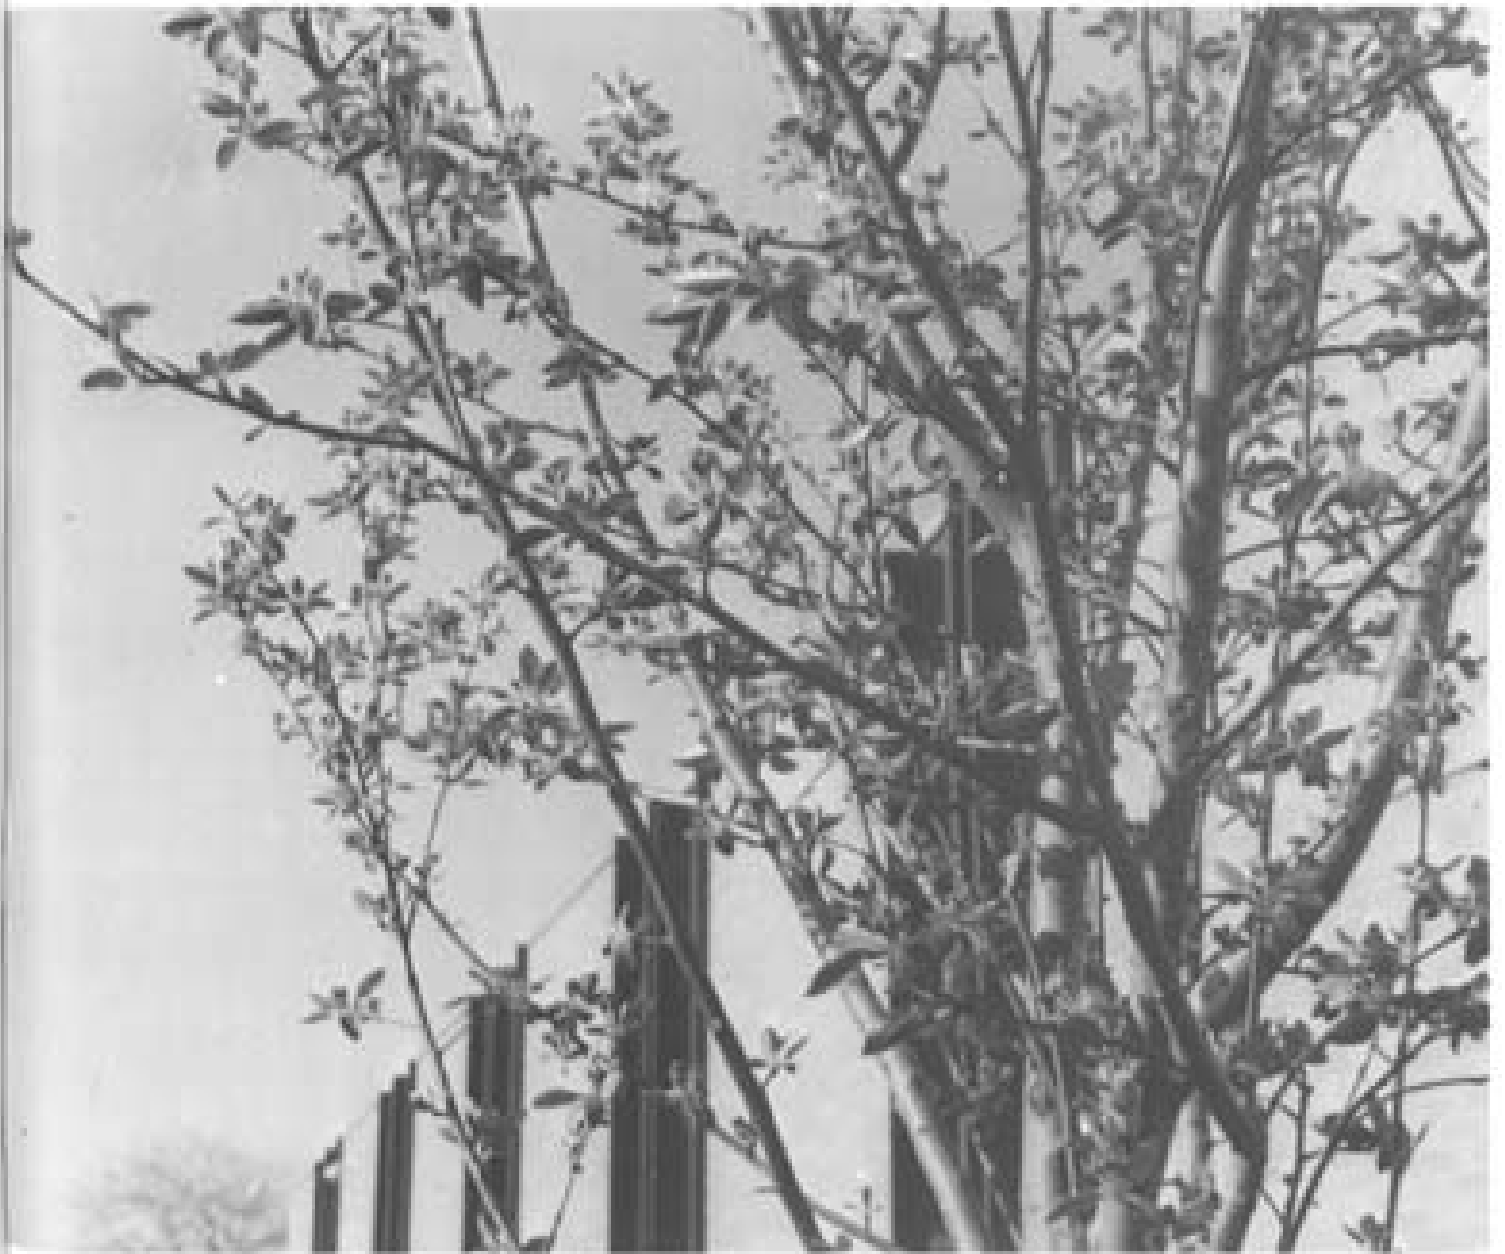

Both the Harbinger, editor, Dave Kelley, and the Labyrinth, editor, Marty Graziosi, Borgess' school publications wound up a year which was characterized by hard work, long hours and ridiculous dedication. The newspaper printed up a special senior edition and yearbook staff members collected on some of the knowledge they'd gained at the Nazareth College Workshop last summer. Similar programs, designed to teach future journalists methods of publication, are in the making for summer.

Of course, the Honors Convocation, the Senior Prom and the Graduation ceremony at Ford Auditorium capped the 1970-1971 school year, adding color to the series of yearly events and memories to Borgess scrapbooks.

Spring sportsters were on the move with baseball, track, tennis and golf. And baseball is one reason why varsity athletes have the right to be proud. Mr. Brisky's Spartans, captained by Jeff Crowley and Jim Bush, and managed by Tim Cummings, sported a 7-2 record this year, good for second place in the league. The young ball team was helped along by star performers Jim Bush, most valuable player, Mark Szpond, leading batter, with a .387 average, and Jeff Crowley, a great team leader. Next year they'll be looking for a championship season.

spring

Junior Varsity sluggers, coached by Mr. Gintoft, finished the season with a satisfactory 5-2 record. Captains Bob Miles and Dennis Goebel led a group studded with versatile pitchers and hitters, such as Ron Sibel, Paul Davis, and Mike Kantor. Coach Gintoft seems to feel that J.V. moodiness was responsible for a lack of consistency, a situation that should be corrected by next year's baseball season.

Spartan Frosh finished the season with an 8-2 conference record, a complement to the Varsity and Junior Varsity Performances. Mr. John Koff, who coached the freshmen, felt that his team had outstanding varsity potential in the form of Joe D'Arcangelo, Mike Milosh, Joe Dillon, Glen Varlesi, Rick Davis and Pete Shaheen. A stellar showing by batter Rick Davis, and no-hit pitchers Reese Dobrick and Joe Dillon, spiced team play.

Girl Baseballers surpassed the men when it came to team records. Miss Collins' Spartan girls attained a first place league standing. Outstanding play was topped by fine showings from Captain Nancy Hryre, Denise Murray, Debbie Young, Arlene Matke, and Yicki Jung. All team members deserve equal credit for the excellent season, including manager, Claudia Graham. Bishop Borgess' impressive Girls Baseball league standing for four years reads 20-4.

It is certainly true that Borgess boasts some star athletes, but track seems to top most of them. Track is the high point of the spring season. Mr. Schwall, who is leaving us next year, and Mr. Strauch guided Spartan runners to their accustomed victories over tough opponents. Captains for the season were Ron Koslowski, John Husek and Dennis Koltuchik. Student managers were Dave Forest and Dave Pendrecki. The Spartan runners glided into a first place position in the A-West league, and were city runner-ups. Track stars to be commended for their great spirit and dedication are Borgess Men Al Rewekant, who set an All-City Catholic League record (2 mi. 9:38.8), and Dennis Koltuchik (All-City 100 yd. dash). Both Catholic League champs displayed an unmatched spirit. All-City for the 880 yard relay were Al Nemzek, Greg Battle, Tim DeBeliso, and Dennis Koltuchik, Greg Battle, second in low hurdles was another All-City man, as well as Al Nemzek, second in the 220 yard dash. Dennis Koltuchik, who was voted most valuable player, upset the Catholic League champ as the 1970 City Finals, in a regular dual meet. The champ was beaten only twice in three years in the 100 yard dash, by Dennis, of course. Long lean Dan Peterson, who has remained undefeated in the A-West for three years, placed third in the city meet with a time of 1:57.8 for the 880 yard run. Other records included a time of 44.9 for the 440 relay run by Dennis Koltuchik, Al Nemzek, Kevin Kleismith and Tim DeBeliso. Bishop Borgess won the Catholic League Reserve Championship by an overwhelming score. They also won the Catholic League Frosh Invitational sponsored by De La Salle.

Sister Ann Christopher's girl runners, captained by Jan Chesick, finished the season with a commendable record. Despite the fact that there is no league for girls track, Spartan ladies worked up to their expected potential, graciously accepting victories and the few defeats. School records were set by Jan Chesick, Anne Klein, Pat Paje, from Cody High School, and Didi Skrzycki, and every member of the team deserved a star for good sportsmanship.

Mr. Mulcahy, the tardiest coach in yearbook history, and his golfers tied for third place in the league. A relatively new team, the Spartan Golfers are composed of two seniors, five juniors, two sophomores and four freshmen. They will surely be getting more well-earned recognition in years to come.

Spartan racketeers, coached by Mr. McDonald, were the fourth out of eleven teams in regional tennis standings, and the fourth out of seven in the league. Joel Reith gave another excellent performance this year, finishing as a state competitor. Freshmen Tim Lucas and Len Baziuk earned their varsity letters. The young team showed much improvement from the beginning of the season.

Conclusions are sometimes sad, memory-filled occasions. But more often than not they are positive proofs of beginnings to come. Such was the nature of the Spring of 1971 — the end of another school year.

That which we are, we are, and if we are to be any better, now is the time to achieve.

The 1970-1971 school year was a time of change, growth, and renewal. The work and ideas of the underclassmen were responsible for many good changes, many repetitions of past activities, and an ultimate contribution to the growth and maturity of Bishop Borgess High School. More importantly, all classes realized the need for cooperation and interaction in order to develop and preserve their school. There was satisfaction to be gained from both successes and defeats, and Juniors, Sophomores and Freshmen were aware that only by sharing would their ends be met.

The Junior Class, with the aid of officers Frank Knesiak, Sue Drypen, Mark Cesari and Nancy Young proved to be very active this year, sponsoring several projects ranging from charity to card parties. The Juniors started off the year by rolling onto the football field at the Homecoming on a float of original design. The theme was tipsy — "Keep our spirits high" on a wine bottle. Then, the first dance of the year was a success. Borgess students pranced to the music of Insanity's Horse at "A Dance Called Horse." The $600 dollar profit was turned over to the Proposal C project.

Christmas was a little merrier for the residents of West Hickory Haven Nursing Home this year, when spirited, sometimes less than talented vocalists gave up an evening to serenade the senior citizens with carols. It seemed that the spirit of giving was in the air as the Juniors donated $25 dollars to the American Cancer Foundation in memory of Miss Pat Ringvicki, a former teacher at Borgess who died of the disease. Emmet Morrissey, a Junior was the recipient of baking product coupons that would enable him to use a badly needed kidney machine.

Activities turned to a lighter note with the Valentine Dance in February. While the turnout was not tremendous, students enjoyed the music of the "Tears of Fire" and discovered just what a splendorous thing love is. A soc-hop followed the January 22 basketball game with Borgess' archrival Aquinas. Students had a chance to cool the tensions produced by an exciting game!

The Juniors "Dealt Out March" at their Spring card party, offering relaxation to both parents and students.

The climax of three years at Borgess came on Wednesday, May 12, when the Class of 1972 received their high school rings at the long awaited breakfast. Mr. Pat Uets, Principal, officiated at the ceremony in the gymnasium. After a breakfast of pancakes and sausages, students were called alphabetically to receive their rings and personal congratulations. The event was a sure reminder that the final and most important year was just around the corner.

The main objective of the Sophomore Class was to raise money needed to put on the Junior Ring Breakfast. To this end, the eerie eve of Halloween was celebrated with a costume dance, "Shades of Orange." Students enjoyed the music as the witching hour rolled around.

The Freshmen started off a busy year with a cider and donut sale. Together with a car wash, the Frosh were able to contribute $175 dollars to defeat Proposal C. Then, later in November at an assembly, class officers revealed the winners of a turkey raffle drawing. The raffle provided money for a class charity Project. At Christmas time, Borgess Freshmen caroled for patients at Martin Place Hospital West.

Their biggest yearly project was a Spring happening labeled "Kinnikinnik." All Borgess students were invited by means of a personal invitation to attend the May 14 affair. "Springwell" provided the music for the debut of the nicest season of the entire year.

"That which we are, we are, and if we are to be any better, now is the time to begin."

— Tennyson

The second graduating class of Bishop Borgess High School showed an unmatched dedication when they donated a 1200 dollar sum to the fight to defeat Proposal C in the fall elections of 1971. Even though this was their last year, the seniors wanted to assure upcoming classes that a good education was available to them. Their continued involvement and generosity was sure proof that Bishop Borgess meant something to them, and would for many years to come.

Even if organization and unity were sometimes lacking, students were aware of an ultimate goal — the achievement of academic perfection and the development of Christian attitudes by means of work, leadership and service.

The upperclassmen manifested an almost endless supply of spirit this year. Activities ranged from the sale of ordinary bagels to a fruitful effort by the "Third Army" to clean the Harbinger office. These devoted soldiers were under the command of "General" F. Forest.

American government, a requirement for fourth year students, was an opportunity for the seniors to visit the governmental institutions of their multi-faceted city. Included in the regular course of study were trips to the City County Building, the Wayne County Jail, the Common Council, and Records Court.

The annual road rally, a year-end event at Borgess, was an out-of-the-ordinary attraction for skilled drivers and capable clue decipherers. The combination enabled winning driver, Kent Aitchison, to take the prize for the rally after a ninety mile, three hour drive. At a picnic afterwards, seniors got together and compared notes on the expedition.

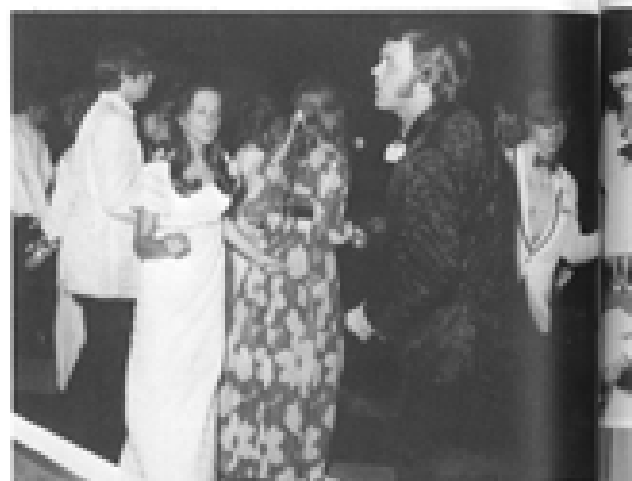

Honors were bestowed on deserving students at the May 29th convocation. A May Crowning Court composed of seniors led off the procession by presenting red roses to a statue of the Virgin Mary. Having donned their caps and gowns, with parents watching, selected seniors, and other juniors, received awards ranging from scholastic writing to forensics. In addition, Karl Gabrys and Michael Cooley received their long-sought appointments to the United States Air Force Academy and the United States Army Academy at West Point, respectively. And, at this most honored occasion, Miss Karen Kosinski received recognition for her reception of the highest public speaking award ever bestowed on a Michigan student — first place in interpretative reading at the National Forensics Tournament in New Orleans, Louisiana. Both Barb Budde and Tom Farrell, a junior, made the finals also.

A year-end brunch was given to the seniors by the Junior class. At this baccalaureate luncheon, upperclassmen were treated to a chicken a la king meal as they conjured some fine memories of past life at Borgess. The solemnity of departure was overshadowed by the joy of anticipation and a knowledge that the future was just around the corner.

The annual Senior Prom was again held at the Raleigh House. This final celebration, complete with satin garters and formal invitations was the culmination of four years at Borgess. After an exotic roast prime rib beef dinner, with baked Alaska for dessert, couples danced to the music of The Blue Notes.

Finally, on June 11, 1971, The Class of 1971 received their diplomas at a ceremony held at the Ford Auditorium. Valedictorian Cecilia Farina, and Salutatorian Barb Budde left their fellow classmates with some thoughts on the past years achievements and failures. They were two very worthy examples of hard work, a quality often equated with graduating classes of Bishop Borgess High School. The graduation audience witnessed the return of a very dear and honored friend, Fr. Thomas J. McAnoy. The ex-principal spoke on the vivid contrast between wealth and poverty, and the need for dedicated young men and women to remedy the situation.

It seems that the word "years" comes into play quite often in the Senior Section. When referring to the graduating class of a high school, we often think of four years well-spent. There is a certain finality connected with the conclusion of these four years, but none which supercedes the finality of the statement: The future lies ahead.

Our small staff this year was comprised of many types of individuals, however, this individuality transformed into togetherness for one gigantic effort to get this book produced. For instance, togetherness is weekend meetings, occasionally indulging in a hearty game of hockey in the 240 hall, using a flattened milk carton as a puck. Togetherness is a group effort to hide TJ's ash trays and eating Big Macs during lengthy sessions.

Meanwhile, I must thank a few people whose cooperation and assistance made our work a little easier. To the office staff, Mr. Yee, Sr. Jean, Al Lozano and his staff at Powell Studios, I thank for their professional assistance. A special thanks is extended to the parents of the staff who provided transportation. An extra special thanks goes to Mrs. Janeczko for coping with all the hours Mr. Janeczko donated during yearbook meetings. There is no end to thanking Mr. Janeczko for his concern, worry and extra time put into the yearbook, especially during deadline time. He is what you might call a jack-of-all-trades, from writing headlines to cropping pictures, besides advising. To him, I am extremely appreciative. I especially can't thank him enough for knowing my name, Margie, I mean Marty.

I thank the staff for all their talents and sacrificing weekends for the cause. I must also thank my right hand man, Mr. Michael McCarthy, and my left hand woman, Miss Carol Kramer, for their tremendous assistance. I wish next year's staff luck in composing another LABYRINTH, Volume III.

Sincerely,
Marty Grazioli
